

Saudi National Foundation Day

National Foundation Day marks a new birth for the Kingdom, having passed three decades during which the country witnessed significant progress and development in various fields. The 22nd of February is designated as the day to commemorate the foundation, annually, by royal decree from the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques.

Saudi National Foundation Day

Saudi National Foundation Day marks a new birth for the Kingdom

Significant progress and development in various fields

Commemorated annually on the 22nd of February

Royal decree from the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques

Objectives of National Foundation Day

- Strengthening the bonds of unity and solidarity among the people and their leaders
- Fostering pride and reverence for the history of the Saudi state
- Demonstrating the resilience of the first Saudi state
- Instilling feelings of patriotism and belonging in the Saudi people
- Celebrating the achievements of leaders in the pursuit of unity and nationbuilding
- Reinforcing the sense of national unity established by King Abdulaziz

Key Events of National Foundation Day

The role of Imam Muhammad bin Saud in establishing the first
Saudi state

01

02

Foundation year 1727

The significance of National Foundation Day

03

Celebrations and Activities on National Foundation Day

- Designing special attire: incorporating the day's logo into clothing
- National Foundation Day logo: included in clothing, flags, and decorations
- Music and performances: accompanied by traditional national songs
- Public participation: singing anthems and dancing to the tunes of pride

Designing special attire

- 01 Suitable for celebrating this special occasion
- 02 Essential part of National Foundation Day activities
- 03 Incorporating the day's logo into clothing

يوم التأسيس
- ١٧٢٧م -

National Foundation Day logo

- Included in clothing, flags, and decorations
- One of the important aspects of celebrating this great day

Music and performances

Vital part of national celebrations

01

02

Accompanied by traditional national songs

Enrich the souls with pride and pride in what the Kingdom has achieved

03

Public participation

- All members of the public participate in these events
- Singing anthems and dancing to the tunes of pride

